First Down with Fr. Eric

Dear Friends,

This past week began another school year for many students and teachers. I reflect on how the beginning of the school year is for students and what they are like. By the time the school year ends, I notice a difference in many of the students. More wisdom, growth in their minds and in their bodies. They are not the same at the end of the year. Sometimes the differences can be easily noticed, and other changes are small yet can be significant.

The same thing can happen for Christians through what is called formation. We use the word formation as it really is forming disciples to learn from Jesus and to follow him. Forming can mean a change that might be noticeable, as Christians can change and become different over time. This happens through learning more about Jesus and our faith. Formation is molding Christians of all ages into people who are different every time their hearts are open to what the Holy Spirit instills into their lives. There is never graduation in the formation of disciples, as it is a lifelong process and commitment. Being the pastor, I have seen so many people change over the many years; they are different in how they live their lives, how they experience the world, and how their love for God and people grows.

During the month of August, we will have three weekends where our Formation Staff members will be offering information and sign-ups for Formation for all ages: from children to youth and adults of all ages. We will offer a homily on the weekend to help inspire parishioners to know that Formation is a path for real discipleship as we not only learn about Jesus but, more importantly, how to follow him.

The goal this year, like every year, is to be different by the time our summer break arrives next year.

Peace in Christ,

Fr. Eric

Christian Disciples in Mission, Living Beyond Sunday

BY SUE ORLANDO, Parish Administrator

Did you know...

St. Patrick is built on five pillars: Liturgy, Hospitality, Formation, Stewardship, and Social Justice.

As Catholic disciples, we are called to put our faith into action. One helpful way to understand this is through Two Feet of Love in Action—a simple image that reminds us we need both Charitable Works and Social Justice to live out the Gospel.

Charitable Works respond to immediate needs. When we feed the hungry, clothe those in need, visit the sick, or support families facing difficult circumstances, we are showing Christ's love through direct service and compassion.

Social Justice looks beyond the immediate need to address the root causes of poverty, injustice, and suffering. This includes advocating for fair policies, promoting human dignity, and working to build communities where everyone has the opportunity to flourish.

Both "feet" are essential. Charitable Works care for people in the moment, while Social Justice helps create lasting change. Together, they reflect the fullness of our Catholic faith and our call to love our neighbors.

If you'd like to learn more about how you can put your faith into action through these ministries, please contact Leah Hill at lhill@stpatcc.org or 480-264-4138.

St. Lawrence:

Seeing the Face of Christ in the Poor

This week on August 10, the Church celebrates the Feast of St. Lawrence, a deacon and martyr whose life continues to challenge us to see every person through the eyes of Christ. While he is remembered for his heroic martyrdom, perhaps his greatest witness was his unwavering love for the poor and his conviction that every human person possesses an immeasurable dignity. As one of the seven deacons serving the Church in Rome during the third century, Lawrence was entrusted with distributing the Church's resources to those in need. His ministry was not simply charitable work; it was an expression of the Gospel. He recognized that the poor were not a burden to be managed but beloved sons and daughters of God. In serving them, he was serving Christ himself.

When the Roman authorities demanded that Lawrence surrender the Church's treasures, they expected gold, silver, and valuable possessions. Instead, Lawrence gathered the poor, the sick, the elderly, widows, and the disabled and presented them before the emperor, declaring, "These are the treasures of the Church." This courageous act proclaimed a truth that remains at the heart of Catholic teaching today; every human life has inherent dignity because every person is created in the image and likeness of God. A person's worth is never determined by wealth, status, productivity, or influence. The poor are not valuable because of what they have to offer society, they are valuable simply because they are loved into existence by God.

St. Lawrence reminds us that authentic Christian discipleship is measured not by what we possess but by how we love. Jesus consistently identified himself with those who are hungry, thirsty, sick, imprisoned, and forgotten. To honor the dignity of every person is to honor Christ himself. Our world often measures success by power, possessions, and achievement. St. Lawrence points us toward a different vision of greatness, one rooted in humble service, generous love, and a preferential care for those on the margins. His example invites us to ask: Do we truly see Christ in the poor? Do our words, decisions, and actions affirm the dignity of every human person? May St. Lawrence inspire our parish to become a community where every person is welcomed, valued, and loved, and where the poor are recognized not as strangers, but as the living treasure of the Church.

Stewardship

When the storm rises and the wind is against them, the disciples are terrified and in that very darkness that Jesus comes to them, saying, "Take courage, it is I; do not be afraid." Peter's cry, "Lord, save me!" reminds us that stewardship isn't about having flawless faith, but about always reaching for Christ even as we begin to sink. Giving at St. Patrick means trusting that what we offer is safe in hands stronger than the storm. Praying means keeping our eyes fixed on Jesus rather than on the waves of anxiety. Serving means being the steady hand that reaches for someone else who is sinking in doubt or fear. Is fear keeping you from stepping out of the boat in faith, prayer, or generosity? As the new school year begins, could this be the year that you boldly support the faith of a new generation; working with middle schoolers at EDGE or sharing the gospel at Children's Liturgy of the Word? Perhaps it is in reaching out to a family member that needs a call? How can we trust in the storm as we reach out in boldness this week?

He doesn't remember the moment his life changed. Blood donors made it possible for him to have one. Eric Sredzinski, PharmD, has spent his career with organizations like Optum, Avella, The Arizona AIDS Drug Assistance Program, Southern Arizona VA Medical Center, CPS Specialty Pharmacy, and UMC Banner Health, helping patients access the care they need. In 2024, a cycling accident nearly took his life. He was hit by a car traveling 45 mph and suffered severe internal injuries, multiple fractures, and brain trauma. During his emergency care, Eric required 14 units of blood, plasma, and platelets. He survived because those units were there when he needed them most.

When We Share What We Have

"There is no need for them to go away; give them some food yourselves." - Matthew 14:16

The readings this Sunday remind us that God sees our needs and invites us to trust in abundant love. In the Gospel, Jesus' disciples see a hungry crowd and feel overwhelmed by the need before them. Jesus responds with a challenge: "Give them some food yourselves." What they have seems insufficient, but when it is shared, it becomes enough.

Our parish GPS stewardship Giving Praying Serving (GPS) theme reminds us that we each have gifts to offer: our time, talents, resources, and presence. We may not be able to solve every problem, but we can make a difference for someone in need. Share what you have through Social Justice and Outreach ministries. Volunteer, donate, advocate, or simply offer your presence. To explore further, please contact Leah at SJO@stpatcc.org.

WISE CHOICES

MAKE YOUR HOME HEALTHIER

Cut down on dust. Vacuum regularly using a HEPA filter, if possible. Wet-mop floors and wipe surfaces with a damp cloth to trap dust.

Take off your shoes. Leave shoes at the door to avoid tracking pesticides, dirt, and other pollutants into the house.

Prevent mold. Fix leaks, dry wet areas quickly, improve airflow, and clean mold.

Improve indoor air. Open windows when possible to bring in fresh air. Use kitchen and bathroom exhaust fans to reduce moisture and pollutants.

Choose products with fewer added chemicals. Look for frangrance-free soaps, cleaners and personal care products. Try to avoid products marketed as stain resistant or nonstick.

Check your drinking water. If you use a private well, have the water tested regularly. Use a certified water filter if testing shows contaminants.

Practice healthy habits. Balanced eating and regular physical activity can help support overall health even when environmental exposures occur.

If you're interested in being part of this meaningful ministry, please reach out to Yasmine Rodriguez at yrodriguez@stpatcc.org. We'd love to have you join the team!

Young Disciples (Ages 3–5) is a special program created just for potty-trained preschoolers to experience the joy of the Gospel in a fun and meaningful way! Offered during both the 8:30 and 10:30 am Masses, children begin in the church with their families, are then blessed and sent forth to continue worship, where they remain for the rest of the Mass.

Want to learn more or are you interested in becoming a volunteer minister? Reach out to Yasmine Rodriguez at yrodriguez@stpatcc.org.
