First Down with Fr. Eric

Dear Friend,

A humbling experience in being a priest is the grace from the Sacrament of Reconciliation to forgive sins in the name of Jesus. When people believe it or understand the importance of this sacrament, there is an experience that a priest can often witness. There is a response from people who hear the words of absolution. There are many responses that people experience when hearing those words of forgiveness. A long-time heavy burden lifted; a reaction of comfort when hearing the merciful words from the priest, knowing one is still loved despite one's faults and failings. And, knowing through the seal of confession, that the penitent can trust that what was revealed in the sacrament can never be revealed to anyone.

As good as these experiences might be for some, the Church needs to go further in helping people develop a healthy understanding of recognizing sin in one's life and how one can receive forgiveness. This is why I have introductions to the Penitential Rite at Mass, the rite where we call to mind our sins and trust in God's mercy. Here is the struggle I have: there are not enough priests here and throughout the Church to hear every confession. It could be offered 24/7 for long periods of time, and not every Catholic would be able to celebrate that sacrament. That is why I ask parishioners to remember the Church teaching that forgiveness of sins can and does happen at Mass and in prayer time with God. It does not only happen in the confessional. It is a call to help everyone learn to examine our consciences and our lives often. To know God's grace is everywhere, not just in a confessional. This does not mean the sacrament is not important or needed; it is. I love this sacrament. Yet not everyone can experience this often. To live the life of examining one's life, identifying sin, asking God for forgiveness, and knowing his grace is there to support us. I will continue to offer insights into how we encounter God's mercy, how we deal with the situation when sin seems to be strong in our lives, and how we can truly celebrate God's mercy.

Remember, in St. Luke's Gospel, Jesus says there will be more joy in heaven over one repentant sinner… that is how God feels about our confession, our repentance.

Peace in Christ,

Fr. Eric

Christian Disciples in Mission, Living Beyond Sunday

BY SUE ORLANDO, Parish Administrator

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace:
where there is hatred, let me sow love;
where there is injury, pardon;
where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope;
where there is darkness, light;
where there is sadness, joy.
O divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console,
to be understood as to understand,
to be loved as to love.
For it is in giving that we receive,
it is in pardoning that we are pardoned, and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.
Amen.

BY ERIC TAMAYO, Coordinator of Liturgy

Give to God What Belongs to God

In this Sunday's Gospel, Matthew 22:15–21, the Pharisees and Herodians approach Jesus with a question designed to trap him: "Is it lawful to pay the census tax to Caesar or not?" If he says yes, he risks alienating those who resent Roman rule. If he says no, he could be accused of opposing Caesar. Jesus does not fall into their trap. Instead, Jesus responds "Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God."

The response of Jesus invites us to consider something much deeper, what truly belongs to God? The coin bears Caesar's image, but we bear God's image. From the beginning, Scripture teaches that every human being is created in the image and likeness of God. Therefore, while we may have responsibilities to our families, communities, workplaces, and country, our deepest identity and ultimate allegiance belong to God.

This Gospel reminds us that faith is not something we leave behind when we enter the world. Our relationship with God should shape the way we participate in our communities, treat our neighbors, make decisions, use our resources, and respond to those in need. Being a disciple of Christ means allowing God's values, his justice, mercy, and compassion, to influence every part of our lives. Jesus does not tell us to withdraw from the world. Rather, he challenges us to live faithfully within it without forgetting who we are and whose we are.

Perhaps the question for us this Sunday is not simply, "What belongs to Caesar?" but "What belongs to God?" The answer is ultimately everything, including our hearts, our gifts, our relationships, our choices, and our very lives. Once we allow ourselves to view and accept everything as a gift from God it can transform our lives. May we recognize the image of God in ourselves and in every person we encounter, and may we faithfully give God what belongs to God, our whole selves, offered in love and service.

Stewardship

Stewardship

Our GPS at St. Patrick: Giving, Praying, and Serving, helps us find our way toward a deeper relationship with Christ and one another. When we serve, we put our faith into action and become the hands and feet of Christ in our parish and our community. God has given each of us unique gifts, talents, experiences, and passions, and He invites us to share those gifts generously. Today, we have a wonderful opportunity to ask ourselves, "Where is God calling me to serve?" Our Serve Fair is happening today after all Masses, and it is a chance to discover the many ways you can become more involved at St. Patrick. In particular, we invite you to explore ministries within the pillars of Hospitality and Stewardship, where your time and talents can help others feel welcomed, connected, and supported. You may discover a ministry you have never considered or meet people who are already serving and can help you find the right place to begin. Please stop by the Serve Fair today, as we grow stronger as a community of Christian Disciples in Mission.

To make a one-time or recurring gift, please go to stpatcc.org/give.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

This week in Catechesis of the Good Shepherd, our Level I children are reflecting on Jesus as the Good Shepherd, who knows His sheep and calls them by name. Our Level II children are exploring Baptism and what it means to belong to Christ.

Through these presentations, the children are invited to wonder at God's loving care for each one of us and the gift of belonging to His family.

ADDING HEART TO THE BRAINS OF BUSINESS

When someone you work with, worship alongside, or care about experiences the death of a loved one, divorce, a serious diagnosis, suicide, aging, or another life-changing loss, do you ever find yourself at a loss for words, wanting to help but unsure what to say or do? Too often, we rely on well-intentioned clichés or avoid the conversation altogether, unintentionally leaving those who are hurting feeling more alone. The good news is that compassionate support is a skill you can learn.

Don't miss this practical and timely presentation.

The Gift of Serving as a Volunteer Minister

"There are different kinds of spiritual gifts, but the same Spirit." - 1 Corinthians 12:4

Our parish GPS stewardship Giving Praying-Serving (GPS) theme reminds us that each of us has gifts to share, a presence that matters, and a role in building God's Kingdom. Volunteer service is one way we put our faith into action.

When we give our time and talents, we become more than helpers, we become companions, advocates, listeners, and witnesses to God's love. Whether we donate food to our weekly food collection bins to feed our neighbors in-need, support a senior adult, welcome a newcomer, or advocating for justice, every contribution strengthens our parish and community.

The Social Justice and Outreach ministry invites you to prayfully consider:

What gifts has God given me, and where might God be calling me to share them?

Get involved: Your time, talents, and presence can make a difference. Find your place to serve and help us Pray. Encounter, Transform. To explore further, please contact Leah at SJO@stpatcc.org.

CLOW is a special time during Mass when children in Pre-K through 4th grade are invited to hear the Word of God in a way they can understand and reflect on. They are encouraged to ask questions and grow in faith through age-appropriate teachings.

Children are blessed and sent forth following the Gloria and return to the congregation during the Offertory. All are welcome—no registration required!

If you're interested in being part of this meaningful ministry, please reach out to Jesse Rodriguez at Jrodriguez@stpatcc.org. We'd love to have you join the team!

YOUNG DISCIPLES

Young Disciples (Ages 3–5) is a special program created just for potty-trained preschoolers to experience the joy of the Gospel in a fun and meaningful way! Offered during both the 8:30 and 10:30 am Masses, children begin in the church with their families, are then blessed and sent forth to continue worship, where they remain for the rest of the Mass.

Want to learn more or are you interested in becoming a volunteer minister? Reach out to Yasmine Rodriguez at yrodriguez@stpatcc.org.
