First Down with Fr. Eric

Dear Friends,

We live in a wonderful time of technology. We have information and news right in front of us with our phones or other devices. We have the opportunity to be informed on our subjects, and we can select which sites on the internet we choose to view.

At the same time, some people choose to share false news and information, which can confuse people into believing what is not true. We can follow people on social media who choose not to share the truth, instead slanting information or outright lying. With Artificial Intelligence, people can be viewed as saying things they did not say. This is going to continue to be a serious problem for our society.

Recently, I came across information on Pope Leo regarding videos, audio recordings, and quotes attributed to him that are not factual. This can mislead people into thinking the Pope believes in certain ways and ideas that support the ideology or beliefs of the people who have social media technology. How can one really know what is factual and true against what is false and a lie?

My recommendation is to use two sites that can give exactly what Pope Leo and other Popes have stated or written in documents. Vatican.va and Vaticannews.va are two sources where you can read directly what the Pope has said. One can read statements, teachings, homilies, and special talks given by Pope Leo. These sites are the official sites of the Vatican. I think that we need to do this type of follow-up on anything we read, view, or listen to. To simply trust one site as the one and only source of what is true and accurate leaves us with possible misinformation. I know it takes extra effort to do this, but it might be a good way to have peace of mind about what is actually said and the reasons that are given as to why the information would be true.

There are really good sources and people out there who do a great job with the truth and accuracy in sharing information. And there are those who slant the information for sinister reasons. We need to be open to research, review, and reflect before we decide to share with others.

Peace in Christ,

Fr. Eric

Christian Disciples in Mission Living Beyond Sunday

BY ERIC TAMAYO,
Pastoral Associate

Mercy and Forgiveness

All of our readings this weekend touch on the mercy and forgiveness of God in some way. In the first reading from Genesis, Abraham questions the extent of God's mercy and forgiveness in dealing with Sodom and Gomorrah. In this passage we see God's mercy and compassion is greater than his judgment. It also shows how the righteousness of a few can be a source of blessing for many. In a world often marked by judgment and division, the mercy of God shines like a beacon of hope, calling each of us to renewal, reconciliation, and peace.

Christ teaches us that no sin is too great to be forgiven, and no soul is beyond redemption. The mercy and love of God exceeds our sinfulness and this is precisely the message we hear in the second reading. Through our baptism we are cleansed from sin and experience the mercy of God as his children. One of the most powerful expressions of God's mercy is found in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Confession is always available to us and shows us how mercy and forgiveness can transform lives. Pope Francis made the message of mercy and forgiveness central to his pontificate and showed Jesus is the face of the Father's mercy. Pope Francis shares, "God never tires of forgiving us; we are the ones who tire of seeking His mercy." God's mercy and forgiveness for us is boundless and unlimited. To seek God's forgiveness is not a sign of weakness, but a sign of courage and humility.

In the Gospel, Jesus gives us another lesson in mercy and forgiveness. In the Our Father we profess, "forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us." It is interesting to see forgiveness is tied to the very way we are to pray. Mercy and forgiveness are essential to the Christian life because it is fundamental to who God is. The Catechism states, "Forgiveness is a high-point of Christian prayer. Only hearts attuned to God's compassion can receive the gift of prayer. Forgiveness also bears witness that in our world, love is stronger than sin... Forgiveness is the fundamental condition of the reconciliation of the children of God with their Father and of men with one another." Forgiveness is not merely a gift we receive; it is a gift we are called to share.

Stewardship

Stewardship

In today's Gospel, Jesus teaches His disciples how to pray, giving them the Lord's Prayer and emphasizing persistence, trust, and generosity in relationship with God. This highlights the foundational call to prayer, through which we align our hearts with God's will. Jesus reminds us that our Father is generous and attentive, giving the Holy Spirit to those who ask. As stewards of God's gifts, we are called to imitate this divine generosity by giving selflessly, praying persistently, and serving others with open hearts. Stewardship begins with a deep relationship with God nurtured in prayer, and it overflows into a life of active charity and faithful service to others, trusting that God will always provide what we need to fulfill our mission.

Reflection: In what ways can I deepen my prayer life so that I can give and serve more generously as a faithful steward of God's blessings?

Family Faith Formation is our at home catechetical program, where we support parents with enriching materials to bring faith alive in the home.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd (CGS) is our weekly formation program for children age 4 through 3rd grade, incorporating Montessori principles to help children hear and respond to the loving call of Jesus, the Good Shepherd, who has loved them first and calls them by name. Classes meet after school and early evening for an hour and a half, once a week, September through April. Contact: Renee Genetti at rgenetti@stpatcc.org, 480-998-3843 ext. 223.

Children's Liturgy of the Word (CLOW) is taking a summer break! What a wonderful year it's been—filled with joy, learning, and growing together in God's love. We're so grateful for the children who joined us and can't wait to welcome everyone back in September during the 8:30 and 10:30 am Masses. We're also looking for kind and enthusiastic adults to help bring the Word of God to life for our young ones. No experience? No problem! We provide all the training you'll need.

If you're interested in being part of this meaningful ministry, please reach out to Yasmine Rodriguez at the parish office: yrodriguez@stpatcc.org. We'd love to have you join the team!

Young Disciples is on summer break! What a fantastic year we've had—full of learning, laughter, crafts, and creativity! We're so grateful for all the little ones who joined us and can't wait to welcome them back this September during the 8:30 and 10:30 am Masses.

Young Disciples is specially designed for potty-trained preschoolers (ages 3–5) to experience the Gospel in a fun and meaningful way—through stories, puppets, drama, and song.

Want to learn more or interested in becoming a volunteer minister? Reach out to Yasmine Rodriguez at yrodriguez@stpatcc.org.
