First Down with Fr. Eric

Dear Friends,

Words can capture the fullness of what needs to be done to reach the full potential of what is desired. An example is the world of Religious Education. It can sometimes give the impression that one graduates from education about our faith. One does the grade levels, one receives the sacraments on a timetable, and one says there is really nothing more to learn about one's faith.

The word we use is formation. We form disciples of Jesus Christ, not only having one remember the rules and doctrine, but forming the lives of everyone. It does go hand in hand, and the heart and soul of the people are meant to be inspired and touched to be committed to following Jesus.

For the next three weekends, our formation staff members will be present at all Masses to welcome parents and their children, offering more information about our formation programs for children from the youngest to the young adult. They will answer questions and offer support and direction. I am glad they will be present on those weekends to meet and welcome all who inquire about faith formation.

Parents, just a reminder to let Jesus be the center of your family. That means there are many things to accomplish and do for family members, but we have resources available to take with you to help with the formation of your children, if, for some reason, there is a serious conflict. We have helped so many families over the years to form their families with good resources. I also invite families who have the blessing to send their children to Catholic schools to know that they are receiving a great education to be leaders in the church. Their presence in our formation programs will help them use their knowledge and service in the greater community. To be connected to the community and faith family is a great goal for Catholic school formation.

Families, we want to accompany you on your journey as you raise your families. We want to assist, we want to be flexible as you will be, and we want all to have a good experience in being challenged to be a disciple of Jesus.

Peace in Christ,

Fr. Eric

Christian Disciples in Mission Living Beyond Sunday

BY ERIC TAMAYO,
Pastoral Associate

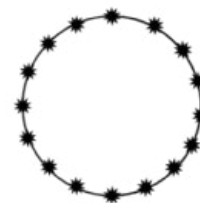

What does the Assumption tell us about Heaven?

On Friday, August 15, the Church celebrates the Assumption of Mary as a holy day of obligation. Although this event is not recorded in the Bible, it has a long history in the tradition of the Church. It was commonly taught and believed that Mary held a unique role in the eyes of God, and so the belief in Mary's Assumption naturally followed. However, it was not until much later in history that this belief was defined as dogma in the Catholic Church. On November 1, 1950, Pope Pius XII defined the Assumption of Mary as a dogma of faith: "We pronounce, declare, and define it to be a divinely revealed dogma that the Immaculate Mother of God, the ever Virgin Mary, having completed the course of her earthly life, was assumed body and soul to heavenly glory." Everything we know and hold to be true about Mary comes from our belief and understanding of who Jesus Christ is. The dogma of the Assumption follows from the teaching of her Immaculate Conception, and both are rooted in the recognition of her status as the Mother of God. Mary, who was born without sin, is thus preserved from corruption and received into heaven both in body and spirit. She shares in her Son's glory from the beginning of her life to the very end.

The Assumption also tells us something about ourselves—and about heaven. Assumed into heaven, Mary reveals our own destiny in the glorification of our bodies, united to the love and glory of God. In Mary, we get a glimpse of the mystery that awaits us. We see the fulfillment of God's promise and the culmination of a loving relationship with Him. Deepening our love for Mary always draws us closer to God. The more we grow in love with Mary, the more we will desire the kingdom of heaven. We are all meant for heaven, as we are all called to holiness. Just as we are created in the image and likeness of God, so too does God call us back to Himself.

Pope Benedict XVI wrote, "Precisely because Mary is with God and in God, she is very close to each one of us...Being in God, who is actually within all of us, Mary shares in this closeness of God." She knows the depths of our hearts, she hears our prayers, and she helps us along our journey as only a mother can. The Assumption calls us to meditate upon the example of Mary, who dedicated her life to serving God. She offers us a model of faith so that we can align our hearts more closely with God and desire heaven. Her Magnificat, her "yes" to God, should echo in our hearts every time we pray the Lord's Prayer: "Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven."

Stewardship

Stewardship

"Where your treasure is, there also will your heart be." Jesus calls His disciples to live with vigilance, generosity, and responsibility as faithful stewards of God's gifts. We are reminded that everything we have—our time, possessions, relationships, and abilities—are not truly ours, but entrusted to us for a greater purpose. Jesus encourages us not to cling to earthly riches, but to give freely, pray constantly, and serve faithfully. The good and faithful steward is the one who stays ready, not out of fear, but out of love—living each day in active expectation of the Master's return. Stewardship, then, is not just about managing resources, but about living each moment with a heart oriented toward the kingdom: generous in giving, intentional in prayer, and committed in service.

If the Lord returned today, would He find me living as a faithful steward—generous in giving, sincere in prayer, and joyful in service?

WEEKLY FORMATION CLASSES FOR CHILDREN AGE 4 THROUGH 3RD GRADE

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

LEARNING THE PARABLES, MEETING THE SHEPHERD, GROWING IN FAITH.

WHAT'S INSIDE THE ATRIUM...

We believe God and the child have a unique relationship with one another. Children need their own place to foster the growth of that relationship. The growth of this relationship is assisted by the adult, but is directed by the Spirit of God within the child.

RELATIONSHIP

The Montessori principles of CGS help children hear and respond to the loving call of Jesus, the Good Shepherd, Who has loved them first and calls them by name.

ENVIRONMENT

The specially-prepared environment (called the Atrium), handmade materials, and highly-trained catechists are all intended to meet the physical, emotional, and spiritual needs of child development.

COMMUNITY

Classes meet after school and early evening for an hour and a half, once a week, September through April. Class sizes are small and intimate for developing small group communities. Children age 4 through 3rd grade are invited to register.

Family Faith Formation is our at home catechetical program, where we support parents with enriching materials to bring faith alive in the home.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd (CGS) is our weekly formation program for children age 4 through 3rd grade, incorporating Montessori principles to help children hear and respond to the loving call of Jesus, the Good Shepherd, who has loved them first and calls them by name. Classes meet after school and early evening for an hour and a half, once a week, September through April. Contact: Renee Genetti at rgenetti@stpatcc.org, 480-998-3843 ext. 223.

Children's Liturgy of the Word (CLOW) is taking a summer break! What a wonderful year it's been—filled with joy, learning, and growing together in God's love. We're so grateful for the children who joined us and can't wait to welcome everyone back in September during the 8:30 and 10:30 am Masses. We're also looking for kind and enthusiastic adults to help bring the Word of God to life for our young ones. No experience? No problem! We provide all the training you'll need.

If you're interested in being part of this meaningful ministry, please reach out to Yasmine Rodriguez at the parish office: yrodriguez@stpatcc.org. We'd love to have you join the team!

Young Disciples is on summer break! What a fantastic year we've had—full of learning, laughter, crafts, and creativity! We're so grateful for all the little ones who joined us and can't wait to welcome them back this September during the 8:30 and 10:30 am Masses.

Young Disciples is specially designed for potty-trained preschoolers (ages 3–5) to experience the Gospel in a fun and meaningful way—through stories, puppets, drama, and song.

Want to learn more or interested in becoming a volunteer minister? Reach out to Yasmine Rodriguez at yrodriguez@stpatcc.org.
