First Down with Fr. Eric

Dear Friends,

Our community is blessed to have the Crosiers Religious Order assisting with Sacraments at different times throughout the year. Their main residence is in South Phoenix and their main house is in Minnesota.

The Crosiers will be joining us this coming Wednesday, December 18 for our Advent Penance Service. We have 10 priests scheduled for this evening to help with confessions. Beginning at 6:00 until 8:00 pm all are welcome to join us. We invite everyone to view our Advent Penance Service on our St. Patrick YouTube Channel to help prepare to celebrate this sacrament.

The Advent/Christmas season reminds all Christians that we are to make room in our hearts for the coming of Christ. This sacrament is a wonderful way to be released from things that hold us back from growing spiritually and to continue a path towards peace which many of us long.

I find great comfort in these words from Pope Francis when he spoke to priests about this sacrament.

Peace in Christ,

Fr. Eric

Christian Disciples in Mission Living Beyond Sunday

BY ERIC TAMAYO,
Pastoral Associate

Gaudete Sunday: Rejoice in the Lord Always

Today is called Gaudete Sunday because we can rejoice and find joy in the coming of Christ. The name is taken from the opening antiphon of the Mass today. "Gaudete in Domino semper: iterum dico, gaudete," meaning "Rejoice in the Lord always; again I say rejoice." In fact all of the readings this week also center around joy. It is a "Sunday of Joy" because we give thanks to God the Father for all the good things in life and especially the gift of his only Son who was born in a manger for our sake. Pope Francis talks a lot about joy and says, "The joy of the gospel fills the hearts and lives of all who encounter Jesus. Those who accept his offer of salvation are set free from sin, sorrow, inner emptiness and loneliness. With Christ joy is constantly born new." This is the source of our joy. The joy that comes from knowing God so loved the world that he sent his only begotten Son for us.

Maybe some of you have heard Pope Francis talk about Evangelii Gaudium, "The Joy of the Gospel." I think it's interesting in Pope Francis' exhortation he identifies both the joy of the gospel and the danger of consumerism together. This is something to be mindful of especially during the holiday season as we are constantly bombarded by advertisements. Pope Francis warns, "The great danger in today's world, pervaded as it is by consumerism, is the desolation and anguish born of a complacent yet covetous heart, the feverish pursuit of frivolous pleasures, and a blunted conscience. Whenever our interior life becomes caught up in its own interests and concerns, there is no longer room for others, no place for the poor. God's voice is no longer heard, the quiet joy of his love is no longer felt, and the desire to do good fades."

When I think of the most joyful people I have ever met, it is always the people who trust in the love of God and are able to share it with others. It is not that they have a lot of money or power, but their happiness and joy comes from knowing the love of God in their life.

A great way for us to prepare for the coming of Christ is to give thanks for the love of God in our life. As Christmas gets a little bit closer, I encourage you to take the time this week to rejoice in the blessings you have received in life and maybe think about how you can share your joy with others.

Serving

Through this advent season, we are invited to reflect on the many blessings in our lives and share them through joyful service in our homes, parish, and community. Whether it's offering kindness and support to family members, ministering at Mass, or reaching out to those in need in the wider community, every act of love and generosity reflects the true spirit of the season. Let us embrace this time as an opportunity to bring Christ's light to others, making our service not a duty, but a celebration of God's love in action. Together, we can make this season one of hope, joy, and meaningful connection.

Social Justice

During the weekend Masses in Advent, we will be collecting socks for our Annual Sock Drive. Bins will be placed at the altar where our parishioners and visitors can deposit their gift of socks which will go to nonprofit and faith organizations in our community who help those in need.

If you choose to donate socks for this charitable drive, we kindly ask that you please purchase new/unused socks. Remaining weekend Masses where socks will be collected are December 14/15, and 21/22.

Our Charity aspect of social justice recognizes that our faith calls all of us to recognize the Community & Common Good and to serve those who do not have the very basic and immediate needs for their everyday life. We are asked to give generously from our abundance.

The Justice component of our faith realizes that socks are an afterthought for most people and that this piece of clothing does not seem too significant. However, for those who are unsheltered, socks are a much needed article. Socks wear out very quickly when living on the street. Socks provide warmth, comfort, and play a role in a person's everyday hygiene by helping avoid blisters and bacteria. With this, we recognize the Dignity of the Person.

Organizations we will be assisting this year are André House, Paz de Cristo, Justa Center, and CASS (Central Arizona Shelter Services).

"None of us can think we are exempt from concern for the poor and for social justice."
