First Down with Fr. Eric

Dear Friends,

We are still in the Christmas season in our Christian community as we know the mystery of the Incarnation is not just celebrated in one Mass, but rather in a season that goes beyond the birth event.

All Churches are reminded that many people from all types of spiritual levels come to celebrate Christmas. It is the one season that everyone hears the message of Christ through Christmas music. Yes, some songs are about snow and jingle bells, but some songs also remind us of Silent Night, Angels singing, and a Drummer Boy playing for the newborn King. These songs are heard by those who have no Church community and there are a number of them who decide to come and celebrate Christmas at a church.

I want to express my thanks to the staff and parishioners who helped make this Advent/Christmas season a good one. The hospitality shown by staff and parishioners is very vital at this time of year. The many people who come to be with us at Christmas are not burdens or strangers who take up space. They, too, are God's people searching for meaning and direction in life. They heard the story of the birth of Jesus, they heard about a newborn King who spoke of love of neighbor and eternal life. The welcome we gave to all who gathered is a true gift to those who decide to come be with us.

As Christians, we are reminded not to get so caught up in results, but rather we simply point the way towards a relationship with Christ. We are the directional signs to those who come to learn more about this newborn King, from the music or even memories from past Christmas celebrations.

Today we celebrate the Feast of the Holy Family and next Sunday the Feast of Epiphany. Our Christmas celebration continues with these two feast days.

Wishing everyone a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Peace in Christ,

Fr. Eric

Christian Disciples in Mission Living Beyond Sunday

BY ERIC TAMAYO,
Pastoral Associate

The Gift of Hope

One of the most important gifts we receive during Christmas is not a material gift but rather the gift of hope. Hope is really at the heart of what the Christmas season is all about. On Christmas Day we join together as a community and once again we proclaim the Gloria. It is a profession of our faith that we have a reason to rejoice, we have a reason to hope because we have a God who loves us so much that he sent his only begotten Son into this world for our sake. During a time full of uncertainty and fear, hope is exactly the message we need in the world today. It is no wonder that Pope Francis announced 2025 to be the Jubilee Year of Hope.

Hope is at the heart of Christmas, but really hope is at the heart of our Christian faith. St. Paul knew this message especially well as he dedicated his life to proclaiming this good news. For St. Paul, Christ changes everything precisely because he gives us a reason to hope. No longer do we look at sin or death the same way because Jesus Christ conquered death itself. Jesus gave himself up for our sake as a sign of God's infinite love and mercy. Hope not only encourages us to look beyond our hardships and challenges, but it also serves to inspire us in the midst of those challenges.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church beautifully describes the significance of hope stating, "The virtue of hope responds to the aspiration to happiness which God has placed in the heart of every man; it takes up the hopes that inspire men's activities and purifies them so as to order them to the Kingdom of heaven; it keeps man from discouragement; it sustains him during times of abandonment; it opens up his heart in expectation of eternal beatitude. Buoyed up by hope, he is preserved from selfishness and led to the happiness that flows from charity."

Pope Francis shares, "Christian hope is a gift from God that fills our lives with joy. And today, we need it a lot. The world really needs it a lot!" Pope Francis invites all of us to pray for the gift of hope especially during this time when there is so much suffering and division in the world. Pope Francis encourages us "day by day, let us fill our lives with the gift of hope that God gives us, and through us, let us allow it to reach everyone who is looking for it." Christmas reminds us how important it is to have hope in our lives. It also reminds us we are called to share the hope and love of Christ with others in the world. Following the guidance of Pope Francis let us all pray for an increase in hope this year.

Serving

Christmas is a season of giving, a time to celebrate the boundless love and generosity God revealed through the gift of His Son. Whether through acts of kindness, words of encouragement, thoughtful gestures, or financial generosity, giving allows us to express our gratitude for the blessings we've received and to share that joy with others. It reminds us that the true essence of Christmas is not found in what we receive, but in the love we extend to others. With hearts full of gratitude, may we embrace the beauty of giving as a reflection of Christ's love in our lives. May our giving reflect our heartfelt desire to look twice and recognize Christ in everyone we encounter.

That Man is You! stands out as a unique men's program, offering an experience unlike any other.

WHERE IS DEACON JOE?

Greetings, St. Patrick Community!
Fr. Eric asked me to write this bulletin article so that you won't think I am sick or have been fired!

My wife, Dolly Sokol and I, are about to embark on a once-in-a-lifetime adventure. We will be cruising around the world for the next four months (Jan-May)! We have been waiting to make this happen for a while. With Dolly's fainting, broken ankle, and her hip replacement surgery, it was not possible this year. We will be leaving Fort Lauderdale on Holland America's Zuiderdam and sail to the Caribbean, South America, Panama Canal, Polynesia, Australia, Singapore, Malaysia, Thailand, Sri Lanka, South Africa, Egypt, Turkey, Southern Europe, Portugal, Spain, Morocco, returning to Fort Lauderdale.

I will miss praying with you in person and plan to watch the Sunday liturgies on YouTube.

May God's peace and blessing be yours this winter and always! See you again in mid-May! Keep us in your prayers!
