First Down with Fr. Eric

Dear Friends,

Our parish leadership reminds all parishioners that the most consistent way to give financially to the parish community is by online giving. It can easily allow your giving to help the parish leadership know how to plan to meet the increasing financial challenges we encounter. We recently sent out an email to those who give online to let them know that we are switching to a new company that is safe, secure, and very easy to sign up and use. It is called SIMPLE. It only takes 3-4 minutes to switch from our current way of giving to this new company. The response has been great so far and we want to remind those who give in this way, to make the switch as soon as possible. We also want parishioners to consider giving online as a simple way to make your offering a consistent way of giving. If there are any questions you may have, please contact Sue Orlando at the Parish Office. She will gladly guide you through this process.

I am grateful to the many parishioners each weekend at Mass who come forward to the altar to place their financial gifts, prayers or prayer requests, and acts of service that they have taken the time to write down. There are a large number who come forward and it is a powerful sign to everyone that giving is the way a disciple of Jesus lives.

Peace in Christ,

Fr. Eric

The Beatitudes: The Secret to Happiness

Being created in the image and likeness of God, we all have an innate desire within us to search for happiness. We can search for happiness in many different ways but as Christ shows us, our ultimate happiness can only be found in God alone. In the English language the word "happiness" doesn't do justice to the ultimate fulfillment Jesus promises. Happiness is an emotion that comes and goes depending on our situation. But, "beatitude" refers to the ultimate happiness that comes from God and is our final goal. The Beatitudes respond to our natural desire for happiness. This desire is of divine origin as God has placed it in our hearts in order to draw mankind to the One who alone can fulfill it.

The Beatitudes proclaimed by Jesus in his Sermon on the Mount provides us with a road map for finding true happiness. In fact, St. Augustine used to call the Beatitudes, "the magna carta of Christian living" meaning it is the perfect standard for how we are to live our lives as Christians. The Beatitudes are difficult for us to understand because they are contrary to everything the world we live in pushes us to believe; that in order to be happy, we have to be rich, own a huge home, be physically attractive, or have the latest device. St. Thomas Aquinas explains that we often try to substitute God in four ways with either wealth, power, honor, or pleasure. When you listen to the Beatitudes however, we get a very different image of what happiness looks like. The Catechism explains, the Beatitudes "are the paradoxical promises that sustain hope in the midst of tribulation." Jesus turns our understanding of happiness upside down in his Sermon on the Mount. He gives us a reason to hope even in the midst of hardship.

The teachings of the Beatitudes are also at the center of Catholic moral theology. As we all seek happiness, it is up to us to respond by the way we live our life and treat those around us. If we truly take the teachings of the Beatitudes to heart then it should change the way we look at the poor, the hungry, the mourner, and the persecuted. At the center of the Beatitudes Jesus wants us to discover his message of hope. Christ entered into this world so that we might all experience and know the love of God the Father. With Christ by our side we have nothing to be afraid of. So if you want to know the secret to true happiness, listen to the Beatitudes and follow them.

This Sunday we will learn more about our opportunity to support the CDA, or Charity and Development Appeal.

Hope does not disappoint because our hope is in Christ. His love and care for us is never ending. And we have a wonderful opportunity to be Christ's hands and eyes for those who need Him most.

Thank you for sharing the hope that does not disappoint through your generous support of the Charity and Development Appeal.

Social Justice

St. Martin de Porres: A Life of Compassion and Service

St. Martin de Porres (1579–1639) was a Dominican lay brother from Lima, Peru, known for his deep faith, humility, and compassion. Born to a freed African woman and a Spanish nobleman, Martin faced prejudice and discrimination due to his mixed-race heritage. Despite these challenges, he became the first black saint of the Americas, celebrated for his selfless service to the poor, sick, and marginalized.

Martin entered the Dominican Order at the age of 24, initially serving as a lay brother, which allowed him to live a life dedicated to prayer, service, and caring for the needs of the marginalized. He was particularly known for his work with the poor, the sick, and animals. Martin cared for the homeless, nursed the ill, and even tended to animals in need, often performing miracles of healing.

His deep spiritual life was characterized by simplicity and humility. Martin is often depicted in religious art with a broom, symbolizing his humble service, and surrounded by animals, reflecting his love for all creatures.

Martin de Porres was beatified in 1837 and canonized by Pope John XXIII in 1962. He is the patron saint of social justice, race relations, and those suffering from poverty and illness. His life serves as an enduring example of love, humility, and the power of service to others.
