First Down with Fr. Eric

Dear Friends,

For many years our parish motto has been CHRISTIAN DISCIPLES IN MISSION. This motto reminds us that our faith in Jesus calls us to move forward in our service to others. Our faith is not one of just spectating and watching others do the work. Rather we were reminded by St. Paul a couple of Sundays ago in our reading that we all have different gifts, but our gifts come from the same Spirit.

Our Parish Leadership would like to acknowledge and celebrate the many parishioners who serve others. For those who have stepped forward and served the parish community by belonging or supporting parish ministries. That is so important and necessary in the work of the parish community. The mission of the parish is to serve others in the name of Jesus. We also include all parishioners who serve the greater community at large, as we are sent forth from the Table of the Lord and go out and serve others. Living one's faith involves community service, organizations that serve others, and our parishioners volunteering in all types of community outreach.

So this coming Saturday, February 8 we invite everyone to RSVP and join us for the 4:30 pm Mass, and after Mass, we will all gather in our patio area in front of the House of Mercy to have dinner and entertainment, and meet other parishioners and guests. Since the Super Bowl is the next day our theme will be football, and we invite everyone to wear their favorite football jersey or shirt. The gathering at the House of Mercy should be around 5:45 pm and there will be plenty of food for everyone. Please RSVP by Wednesday, February 5. We look forward to a great time for everyone.

Peace in Christ,

Fr. Eric

Christian Disciples in Mission Living Beyond Sunday

BY ERIC TAMAYO,
Pastoral Associate

The Presentation of the Lord

In Scripture we don't hear much about the early life of Jesus, but in the gospel this week we hear the account of the presentation of the Lord. But as Catholics, why do we celebrate this feast? What is the importance of this ancient Jewish tradition and the temple?

Without the proper historical context, we lose a lot of the meaning behind this feast. Mosaic law prescribed that every firstborn male in Israel had to be consecrated to God forty days after birth (Lev 12, Ex 13:12-15). This feast was also known as the Feast of the Purification of the Virgin because according to the law, a mother who had given birth was to participate in the ritual of purification (Lev 12:2-8). It is important to note Mary and Joseph's respect for the Mosaic Law. They are devoted to following the will of God and his commands. They humbly approach God in the temple, follow the ritual of purification, and the offering of a sacrifice. We see them make the offering of the poor by presenting "a pair of turtledoves, and two young pigeons." Even in their poverty they are committed to giving thanks and following God. This feast is a joint memorial of the Son of God and the family of Jesus.

The temple itself is especially important in order to understand the significance of the feast. For the Israelites, the temple was the dwelling place of God. It was the one place where humanity and divinity could come together. In the temple man could be reconciled with God. There is a certain beauty as Jesus is the return of God to the temple. Prophecy is fulfilled as Jesus comes to the temple. Through Jesus we are now reconciled to God. Not in the temple, but in Jesus himself do we see the true meeting place between God and man. Jesus is presented to God the Father and he is offered to the Lord. As we saw last week, Jesus is the Lamb of God whose sacrifice restores our fallen humanity to God.

The people of Israel were waiting for the return of God and the coming of the messiah. When Mary and Joseph take Jesus to the temple we see the return of God to the temple. And this is precisely what Simeon sees, the salvation of the world. God returns to his temple in the form of a child. Jesus is the one who reconciles humanity back to God. The prophecy of Simeon and Anna gives testimony to the redemption of Jerusalem and the world.

Now we have a much greater gift than the temple, we have Jesus Christ. We don't have to travel to Jerusalem to encounter God, in the Sacrament of the Eucharist we encounter God here on earth. The question is, like Mary and Joseph are we willing to go out of our way to present ourselves to the Lord? Do we limit ourselves to only being with God one hour each week?

Stewardship

Praying

A Prayer of Stewardship

Gracious and Loving God,
 You are the source of all blessings and the giver of every good gift.
 Teach us to be faithful stewards of the time, talents, and treasures You have entrusted to us. Help us to use them wisely in service to You and others, that we may reflect Your love and bring glory to Your name.

Give us generous hearts, willing to share joyfully with those in need, and grant us the wisdom to care for Your creation responsibly.
 Through Your Spirit, guide us to live as faithful disciples, always mindful of the gifts You have given and the mission You have called us to fulfill.

We ask this in Jesus' name,
 Amen.

Opportunity to Serve

Lent provides us with an opportunity to create a deeper relationship with God through prayer and service. You can enrich your Lenten service commitment through participation in the St. Patrick Lenten calling campaign.

During the Lenten season we will begin our annual parish wide telephone call campaign. Our goal is to speak with a member of each household sharing opportunities to grow their faith, identify their personal and spiritual needs and any prayer requests.

The calling minister's participation is flexible. Telephone calls are made from your home using your personal cell phone or land line phone. Your phone number is masked; the parishioner will not see your personal phone number. A personal computer or tablet are required. Training and a calling script are provided. This is a fantastic opportunity to serve our St. Patrick parishioner community! This is not a solicitation call.

If you have any questions, please contact Gina at callingministry@stpatcc.org.

Online Giving Transition

Thank you to those givers that have already made the switch to our new online giving platform!

As mentioned last week, St. Patrick has partnered with a new online giving platform that is simple and secure to use, fully integrated with our member database and will save us administrative costs.

If you are a current recurring giver through WeShare (our old giving platform) or ACH through St. Patrick, you should've received an email on Friday, January 24 letting you know how to transition your recurring giving to the new platform.

If you have questions or need help with this transition, please reach out to:

Laurie Coffman at lcoffman@stpatcc.org ~ 480-264-4126
or Sue Orlando at sorlando@stpatcc.org ~ 480-264-4119

We'll also be available after all Masses this weekend (February 1 and 2) to answer any questions and to offer help.

Continuing our commitment

Stewardship through GPS—Giving, Praying, and Serving—is a way of living out our faith with purpose and gratitude. It invites us to recognize the blessings God has given us and share them generously with others. As we enter the new year, we are called to grow in our stewardship by deepening our commitment to give in greater ways. Whether it's offering more of our time, talents, or treasures, each act of giving becomes a reflection of God's love. Together, let us embrace opportunities to give more freely, pray more fervently, and serve more wholeheartedly, building a stronger community rooted in faith.

We encourage you to explore our Online and Text-to-Give options, which make giving simple, secure, and efficient for you and the parish. Visit stpatcc.org/give or text "give" to 602-691-7222 to get started.

Contact Sharon Fabyanic in the parish office to find out more opportunities for Giving, Praying and Serving in 2025!

Social Justice

Black History Month and Catholic Social Teaching

Black History Month, celebrated each February, is an opportunity to reflect on the rich heritage, struggles, and contributions of African Americans to society. Rooted in the principles of Catholic Social Teaching (CST), this month calls attention to the dignity of every person, the importance of solidarity, and the pursuit of justice.

Catholic Social Teaching emphasizes the inherent dignity of all individuals, a theme resonant in the African American experience. Throughout history, African Americans have faced systemic oppression, yet their resilience reflects the belief that all people, regardless of race or background, are made in the image of God. CST also highlights the need for community and solidarity, urging us to recognize the interconnectedness of all people, working together for the common good.

Furthermore, the Church's commitment to justice calls for an end to racism and inequality. African American History Month provides an opportunity to examine how social structures can perpetuate injustice and encourages action toward a more just and equitable society. The Catholic Church, through its advocacy for human rights and social justice, aligns with efforts to dismantle racism and promote racial reconciliation.

By engaging with African American history and the principles of Catholic Social Teaching, we are called to honor the past, confront present injustices, and work together to create a future where the dignity and rights of all are upheld.
