First Down with Fr. Eric

Dear Friends,

We are grateful to those who support our parish bulletin through advertising. Some people still like having something in their hands to see and read to find out important information. To supplement the paper bulletin we invite parishioners and others to sign up for our weekly email connection.

The email connection is sent out once a week to about 6,000 email addresses. It contains the latest information on the parish, videos, photos, and timely reminders. Anyone can sign up to receive the email through our parish website, stpatcc.org, or call the Parish Office for assistance. Our survey information tells us that over 60% of our email blasts are opened, which is a very high number. Most businesses are happy with 25%. This tells us that parishioners and other people are interested in what our parish offers and makes people aware of upcoming events.

Thank you for your support of those who choose to advertise in our parish bulletin. Our bulletin is another form to reach out to people, and the email Connection is a fantastic tool to give out the most up-to-date information.

Peace in Christ,

Fr. Eric

Faith Seeking Understanding

The journey of understanding our faith goes beyond the few years of religious education we have as children. Understanding our faith is really a life-long journey that continues to transform and expand as we progress through life. No matter if you were raised Catholic or a convert we all have an obligation to deepen our understanding of the faith we practice. We need both faith and reason. Pope John Paul II describes faith and reason "like two wings on which the human spirit rises to the contemplation of truth; and God has placed in the human heart a desire to know the truth—in a word, to know himself—so that, by knowing and loving God, men and women may also come to the fullness of truth about themselves." This is the key to it all, by deepening our understanding of God we ultimately come to a better understanding of who we are.

St. Anselm teaches us that we must use our faith to seek understanding of the world around us and of the God who created us. St. Anselm of Canterbury once said, "I do not seek to understand in order that I may believe, but rather, I believe in order that I may understand." He knew the importance for all Christians to seek God not only with our hearts but with our minds as well. His words highlight an important aspect of Catholicism which is the need for both faith and reason.

Understanding our Catholic faith can feel overwhelming at times, sometimes the difficulty is knowing how and where to even start. While there are a number of faith-sharing ministries and bible studies to help, St. Patrick is happy to announce an upcoming series called, "Catholic 101" beginning January 8 on Wednesday evenings from 6:00 - 7:30 pm. Catholic 101 is an eight-week journey into the heart of Catholicism. Whether you are new to the faith, returning after time away, curious about Catholicism, or simply seeking to deepen your understanding, this is the course for you. Each session will explore foundational aspects of the Catholic faith. If you are interested, you can register online at stpatcc.org/catholic101 or contact Lenny Kelley at lkelly@stpatcc.org for more information. At one point or another we all face a crisis of truth, but if we search Scriptures and Church teaching in good will our faith will only be enriched by the abundance of God's beauty, goodness, and truth.

Giving

The journey of the Magi teaches us a profound lesson about giving: their gifts were not merely treasures but expressions of faith, reverence, and love for the Christ Child. Like the Magi, we are called to offer our own gifts to God, not out of obligation, but with hearts full of devotion and gratitude.

These gifts need not be gold, frankincense, or myrrh; they can be our time, talents, and treasure. Their generous offering reminds us of the joy and purpose found in giving. As we reflect on God's greatest gift, may we also give with hearts full of gratitude, sharing His light and love with those around us. Let our gifts today honor the King who came to bring hope to all.

That Man is You! stands out as a unique men's program, offering an experience unlike any other.

- It tackles real issues facing real men.
- It looks at the leadership role that has been entrusted to men and addresses the temptations and struggles men face in a culture that attacks authentic manhood.
- Finally, it helps formulate a plan that allows men to overcome these obstacles.

If you are interested in joining That Man is You!, please join us on Wednesday mornings at 6:30 am in the House of Mercy (Pope Francis room). We will be done by 7:50 am.

For more information, please contact John Nichols at: tmiy@stpatcc.org.

Through games, crafts, service, scripture study and prayer, students grow deeper in knowledge of Christ and the teachings of the Catholic Church. ROCK45 helps our youth foster faith-based friendships.

All 4th and 5th graders are welcome and BELONG to ROCK45. We always have room for one more friend! For more information, or to chat about your youth becoming involved in the program, contact Diane Kar (dkar@stpatcc.org, 480-998-3843 ext. 209). It's never too late to start attending ROCK45!!

ROCK45 is OFF for the Advent/Christmas Season and resumes on Jan. 27. Enjoy this time making family memories!
