CHRISTIAN DISCIPLES IN MISSION

First Down with Fr. Eric

Dear Friends,

Emergency Assistance has been an outreach ministry for a very long time. We are reminded by Church law that every parish has boundaries and the souls of everyone living within those boundaries are important to the parish, not only spiritually, but also when there is a serious need. The parish community does not seek to serve only its members, rather we see the image of God in every person and we are called to treat them as Christ.

Our parishioners support the Emergency Assistance Ministry (EAM) with the offertory each month that has a 5th Sunday. There have been numerous parishioners and others who have given very generously on their own at different times of the year.

The ministry is equipped to offer some basic services to meet the needs of people looking for assistance. Although EAM does not currently assist with rent, it does offer assistance to other basic services like utilities, food, gas, counseling, and other outside resources for people looking for assistance to help offset unforeseen emergency costs. Each person meets with a staff member or trained minister to learn their story, see what can be offered, and also work with other agencies to help meet any serious immediate need. This process gives dignity to those who seek assistance and offers some solutions or paths to solutions. It is not just offering cash to people and nothing else. I am grateful to the staff and parishioners who make this ministry work.

A reminder that every dollar given in the 5th Sunday collection is used for the Emergency Assistance Ministry. We recently had our collection and the next collection will be September 29. However, parishioners can give to the ministry at any time throughout the year.

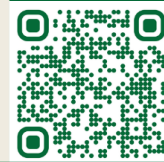

We see Christ not only in Catholics, we seek Christ in all people and we do what we can.

Peace in Christ,

Fr. Eric

The Importance of Silence

Our readings today revolve around the familiar theme of sheep and the shepherd. The image of the Good Shepherd reminds us God is always guiding us and taking care of our needs. It also shows how each one of us is called to be a shepherd in one way or another. If you are a parent, you are called to be a shepherd to your children. To your friends, family, and coworkers, you are called to be a shepherd. Even to the stranger on the street you are called to be a shepherd. Think, in your current state of life, right now, how do you lead others closer to Christ? Part of that relies on knowing Christ yourself. How will you ever be a good shepherd if you don't have a relationship with Jesus who is the true good shepherd? In this way we are his sheep by seeking his guidance and trusting in his love.

In Mark's gospel today, we hear about the disciples returning after they had been out proclaiming the word of God. Jesus then invites them to go away to a deserted place and rest. Every once in a while, we need time to rest, we need time alone in silence. By incorporating some silence into our lives we are better able to hear God speaking to us.

I invite you to think about your week. Think about all the things you do in a week. From working, cooking, cleaning, shopping, to taking care of your family, watching tv, and time on your phone. The problem is, if we never set time apart for silence and prayer the chances are it is never going to happen. It can be hard to find time for prayer let alone silence. But if you never set time apart for prayer, you will always find something more entertaining to do. With so many things competing for our attention it can even be easy to feel lost. We are being pulled in so many different directions by what we watch on TV or the internet, or the way we joke or talk with others. We become sheep without a shepherd.

If you feel lost, or like a sheep without a shepherd, follow the instructions of Jesus; incorporate time of silent prayer into your life. I think we can all agree, we could benefit from a little rest. At the same time we realize that Christ is the only one who offers us true rest and true peace. We recall St. Augustine's famous line, "my soul is restless until it rests in you." It is only through the shepherding of Christ that we find our way to good pasture. Both human and divine, it is Jesus who has come to lead us, walking in front of us, alongside us, and behind us. Listen to Christ speaking to you, he is the Good Shepherd. Let him guide you. If you take the time to listen and trust in him, you will never be lost.

Funny & FACT

"Which holiday is a cardiologist's favorite?"

"The Feast of the Sacred Heart."

The Feast of the Sacred Heart remembers Jesus' love for us. In art, Jesus' Heart is sometimes shown surrounded by a crown of thorns and enflamed with love (for us!).

Are you having trouble hearing during Mass?

If you or someone you know is having trouble hearing during the Mass, talk to one of our Hospitality Ministers! We have nine assisted listening devices to help you hear better and enter deeper into prayer. There are two options to choose from:

A standard ear piece that is placed in the ear, or a T-coil neck loop that is placed around the neck and connects directly to your hearing aids!

Please refer to your audiologist to ensure your hearing aids are T-coil compatible.

Social Justice

Our Annual Back to School Drive will run through July 28

Many of us remember that bittersweet part of summer when vacation was coming to a close, but right around the corner we were going to see our classmates again when school started. There was a certain energy of going shopping for new school supplies that included fresh notebooks, folders, and markers. And don't forget about that certain lunch box with your favorite character on it!

Next weekend our annual parish Back to School Drive finishes on July 28. Many children and their families will not have the capability or means to shop for brand new school supplies. Many will come to that first week of class lacking necessary supplies, thus leading to a difficult time learning and feeling out of place from their peers.

Let's all pitch in for families in need by helping their children feel confident and ready for school. Having the right school supplies helps give kids a sense of comfort and belonging. See the flyer for more information.

Thank you again for helping this annual drive be a continued success for St. Matthew and Roadrunner Elementary Schools, and for the children of incarcerated parents.
