First Down with Fr. Eric

Dear Friends,

Sunday, September 27 marks the 112th World Day of Migrants and Refugees, a day that our Church remembers the complex situation of migration and those fleeing from dangerous situations. Pope Leo reminds us of this year's theme entitled, "Even just one of these children" Matthew 18:10. The focus is on the danger for children and the struggles that children face in leaving their homeland.

Every year, children and their families are forced to leave their homes because of war, poverty, violence, environmental disasters and other tragedies. This Sunday I will be preaching on Migrants and Refugees, sharing the letter from Pope Leo that is available in my Huddle Up section of our email Connection. Pope Leo reminds us of our call to remember the human dignity of every person.

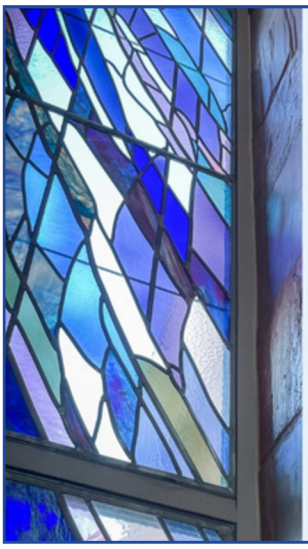

After all the Masses this Sunday and for the following Sundays, there will be a table in the Narthex offering parishioners resources pertaining to this issue of Migration and Refugees. Information regarding the challenges that human beings encounter, stories that will shed light on the suffering of many, and what we can do as a community to be Christ-like to the stranger, those from a different part of the world. Pope Leo's letter on migrants and refugees states, "even just one of these children, within the horizon of different religions, the vulnerability of the young knows no religious boundaries and unites us in a shared humanitarian and spiritual responsibility."

Our parish theme this year is LORD MAKE ME AN INSTRUMENT OF YOUR PEACE, and these words come from what we call the prayer of St. Francis of Assisi. We will be sharing many spiritual insights about St. Francis, which include a central theme of human fraternity. St. Francis sees every person as a brother and sister and reminds us that all belong to the family of God.

Peace in Christ,

Fr. Eric

Christian Disciples in Mission, Living Beyond Sunday

BY SUE ORLANDO, Parish Administrator

The St. Patrick Team is growing again.

We are delighted to welcome Madeline Hillebrand to the St. Patrick team! Madeline joins us as our new Coordinator of Rock45 and Family Initiation.

She is no stranger to St. Patrick, having served as an EDGE core team member and played an important role in that ministry during the years before COVID.

Madeline earned her undergraduate degree in Education from Arizona State University, along with a master's degree in Family and Human Development, specializing in Child Life.

Please join us in welcoming Madeline to her new role and extending to her the radical hospitality for which St. Patrick is known!

BY ERIC TAMAYO, Coordinator of Liturgy

St. Francis of Assisi:

Recognizing God in Creation

St. Francis of Assisi is one of the most recognizable and beloved saints in the history of the Church. Francis is remembered for his deep love of God, his joyful simplicity of life, his concern for the poor, and his special care for all of God's creation. Born into a wealthy family in Assisi, Italy, Francis experienced a profound conversion that changed the direction of his life. He chose to leave behind a life of comfort and privilege and embrace the Gospel in a radical way. Francis sought to follow Christ by living simply, serving those in need, and becoming a messenger of peace. His life reminds us that holiness is not simply about what we possess, but about how generously we give ourselves to God and others.

St. Francis is also known for his remarkable appreciation for creation. He referred to the sun, moon, earth, and animals as brothers and sisters, recognizing that all creation points toward the goodness of its Creator. His famous Canticle of the Creatures expresses this joyful praise of God through the beauty of the natural world. Francis saw all of creation as a gift that draws us towards God. For this reason St. Francis is considered the patron saint of animals and ecology and why you will often see depictions of him surrounded by animals.

Francis' life challenges us to slow down and notice God's presence. How often do we move through our days without pausing to appreciate the beauty of creation, the kindness of another person, or the simple blessings God places before us? Like Francis, we are invited to see with the eyes of faith and to recognize that every good gift ultimately leads us back to God.

Here at St. Patrick, we would like to invite you to a Blessing of Animals on Saturday, October 3 at 9:00 am in front of the House of Mercy. As we recognize the love God has for all his creatures, we invite you to bring your pets for a special blessing. In their own ways, when viewed through the eyes of faith, pets can help guide us to recognizing the beauty and love of God in our own lives. Following the example of St. Francis let us learn to walk the path of peace, simplicity of life, love of creation, and love of God.

Stewardship

Stewardship

Jesus tells the story of two sons, one who says yes but does nothing, and one who says no but ultimately obeys—to teach us that stewardship is proven in action, not just intention. True giving isn't found in the promises we make, but in the follow-through of a changed heart. This Gospel calls us to honest prayer, admitting when our words have outpaced our deeds, and asking for the grace to align the two. Serving God isn't about appearing faithful; it's about actually showing up, especially after we've fallen short or said no at first. There's hope in this parable for anyone who has resisted God's call before eventually turning back; our past refusals don't disqualify us from present obedience. Stewardship invites ongoing conversion, not perfection from the start. What matters most is not how we began, but whether we ultimately do the Father's will. May we examine where our actions need to catch up to our good intentions, trusting that it's never too late to say yes. Where can we serve in our families and community this week?

To make a one-time or recurring gift, please go to stpatcc.org/give.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

This week in Catechesis of the Good Shepherd, our Level I children are continuing to explore the altar and the sacred vessels used in the celebration of the Mass. Our Level II children are beginning the True Vine presentation, reflecting on Jesus' words and our relationship with Him.

These presentations help the children discover the connection between Scripture, the liturgy, and our life with Christ.

MEN'S CLUB AT MANA HOUSE

Ice cream social event for Veterans
September 12

For the third consecutive year, members of the St. Patrick Men's Club, along with Sylvia and representatives from Catholic Charities, hosted a wonderful ice cream social for the veterans of MANA House.

The afternoon was filled with generous servings of ice cream, an exciting raffle, plenty of smiles, and—most importantly—meaningful fellowship. Men's Club members took time to sit with the veterans, listen to their stories, and enjoy one another's company. Raffle prizes donated by the Men's Club and MANA House included a grand-prize television!

Catholic Charities' Paul Mulligan expressed his deep appreciation for the Men's Club's year-round support of MANA House and for the treasured partnership between Catholic Charities and St. Patrick Catholic Community. Rachel from MANA House called it their best ice cream social yet, noting the enthusiastic response from the veterans.

Thank you to everyone who helped make this joyful event possible and for continuing to honor and support those who have served our country.

CLOW is a special time during Mass when children in Pre-K through 4th grade are invited to hear the Word of God in a way they can understand and reflect on. They are encouraged to ask questions and grow in faith through age-appropriate teachings.

Children are blessed and sent forth following the Gloria and return to the congregation during the Offertory. All are welcome—no registration required!

If you're interested in being part of this meaningful ministry, please reach out to Yasmine Rodriguez at yrodriguez@stpatcc.org. We'd love to have you join the team!

YOUNG DISCIPLES

Young Disciples (Ages 3–5) is a special program created just for potty-trained preschoolers to experience the joy of the Gospel in a fun and meaningful way! Offered during both the 8:30 and 10:30 am Masses, children begin in the church with their families, are then blessed and sent forth to continue worship, where they remain for the rest of the Mass.

Want to learn more or are you interested in becoming a volunteer minister? Reach out to Yasmine Rodriguez at yrodriguez@stpatcc.org.
